

MERSEYSIDE FREE RADIO SCENE

Week ending Sunday 8th September 1985

It has been confirmed that the DTI successfully raided Storeton Community Radio last Sunday at 1pm, then attempted to raid Radio Merseywaves a few minutes after 3pm. This week, the stations stayed off the air until their weekend transmissions were due, Central Radio weren't heard till Sunday and Kiss-FM have not been heard at all, nor have Commodore Radio.

CENTRAL RADIO INT. 1404kHz: 18, Glynne Street, Orrell, Bootle, Merseyside L20 6DF

This station failed to show up for their scheduled Friday broadcast and were not heard on Saturday. They were first noted at 11am on Sunday with Jim Browne apparently opening up the station. He said he couldn't go into reasons for the early close-down last weekend and thanked "the men working on the lift" for keeping the station off the air till Sunday of this weekend. They announced an 11am-Midnight schedule but actually closed down at 11pm. Listening time this weekend has been limited to a few spot checks, so apologies if the schedules aren't 100%. Heard were:- 11am-1pm Jim Browne; 1pm-3pm Phil Davies; 3pm-4pm Jeff Thompson; 4pm-6pm Tom Webb; 6pm-8pm Jim Lowe; 8pm-10pm John Sanderson; 10pm-11pm Marty Duane; 11pm station close-down by John Sanderson. RADIO MERSEY WAVES 1242kHz: 9, Meadfoot Road, Moreton, Wirral, Merseyside L46 7UW

From mid-day Friday listening has been largely confined to spot checks so there may be some errors in the following schedules.
